

Why am I learning this?

I am learning this so that I can communicate with another French speaking person. School is a major part of my life at the moment so its important to be able to express opinions on my school life. It is important to be able to understand the differences between school life in the UK and in French speaking countries.